

Update of information

Date of issue: 4 February 2013

Change to custodian

We recently undertook a detailed review of the custody services used to hold the assets of our funds. After carrying out due diligence on a number of market participants, which included presentations, site visits and visits to each participant's existing clients, we have appointed Citigroup Pty Limited as custodian to hold the Australian assets, and Citibank, N.A as custodian to hold the International assets of the following funds listed below.

This transition was effective 14 January 2013.
